9 Fill in sentences using the correct form of doing something and words in parentheses. Use contractions where possible. Print this post Try a quick test to practice causally! Causal #1 – AU/GET something done This means that someone is doing something for you because you pay or ask them to do it, but you don't say who this person is. Examples: HAVE/GET SOMETHING DONE He had/got his hair cut. He didn't have to check his teeth. I had/got the leak in the roof fixed. Did you have/get the TV fixed? Causal #2 – have someone do something This means that someone is doing something for you because you pay or ask them to do it, but you also tell who this person is. Examples: HAVE WHO DOES THAT The teacher had students write a test. I'll have my assistant call you with the details. I had the man on hand fix the leak. You had electrician fix TV Causal #3 – GET WHO TO DO THIS this means that someone does something for you because it convinces you (= encourage, tell them that you want them to do something) them to do it. So this construction seems less neutral than the previous ones. Examples: Get someone to do something I (finally) got my kids to go to bed. I can't make my wife cook dinner. Can you make your sisters stop arguing? Kevin had his brothers take him on an adventure. Causal #4 – Make someone do something this means that force someone/something to do something for you. Examples: DO CINEVA / CEVA DO THAT What do you swing hips. Don't make her cry. The teacher made him (Peter) work hard. Why do you make them (your parents) worry so much about you? Causal #5 – TO CINEVA/ THAT DOES THIS this means that it allows you (= to, give permission to do something) someone to do something or allows you something to happen. Examples: TO CINEVA/THAT DOES THAT She let the kids stay up past midnight. I let the chicken burn in the oven. Why did he let that happen? Let me go! Causal #6 – HELP WHO (to) do something This means you help (= assist) someone (to) do something. This structure is most often used without. Examples: HELP WHO (to) make some milk can help you fall asleep. Can you help me carry my bags? I don't see that helping them understand the lesson. Can computer games help kids learn to read? Advanced Grammar Advanced Vocabulary Android/iOS App Our following newsletter is a mini-tutorial on the use of causal verbs let, make, have and get. After you've studied the tutorial, complete the related exercises. If you already know how to use these verbs, you can skip the explanation and go straight to the exercises. [to + person + verb] USE This construction means to allow someone to do something. Examples: John let me drive his new car. Will your parents let you go to the party? I don't know if my boss will let me take a day off. Make FORM [make + person + verb] USE This construction means to force someone to do something. Examples: My teacher made me apologize for what I said. Did someone make you wear that ugly hat? He had his kids do their homework. Have FORM [have + person + verb] USE This construction means to give someone the responsibility of doing something. Examples: Dr. Smith had his assistant take the patient's temperature. Please have your secretary fax me the information. I had the mechanic check the brakes. [get + person + to + verb] USE This construction usually means to convince them to do something or to trick someone into doing something. Examples: Susie had her son take the medicine, even though it tasted terrible. can parents make their children read more? Government TV commercials are trying to get people to stop smoking. Get vs Au Sometimes ,get someone to do something is with having someone do something, but these expressions don't mean exactly the same thing. Examples: I had the mechanic check my brakes. I had the mechanic check my brakes. Exercises Let/ Make/ Have/ Get Exercise Learn English at Englishpage.com! Englishpage.com! Englishpage.com!
